

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, because our children are our most cherished treasures, we must do everything possible to ensure that they have the resources they need to learn, develop, and achieve their greatest potential; and

WHEREAS, when started in childhood, good health, safety, and environmental habits can be maintained for a lifetime; and

WHEREAS, Kids Day America is a special day set aside to educate families and communities about health, safety, and environmental issues; and

WHEREAS, during this annual observance, doctors of chiropractic across South Carolina and the nation, along with local organizations, public safety officers and other officials, join together to offer free child ID cards as well offer information on topics such as health awareness, fire safety, bicycle safety, recycling, drug awareness, and many other important issues.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 19, 2007, as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to work together to educate our children about health, safety, and environmental issues.
